A Quietly Different Worship Experience

Brett Watson, lay preacher (and Instructional Technologist at AEP), and Donna Latus, music minister (and self-employed piano/guitar instructor), have worked together in leading worship services for 15 years. But in the spring of 2011, they found themselves called to facilitate "a quietly different worship experience" - a silent Meeting for Worship in the manner of Friends (Quakers).

Brett and Donna continue to lead "programmed" (planned) worship services on Saturday mornings, "speaking to the weary a word that will rouse them" (Is 50:4) and "singing to the Lord a new song" (Ps 98:1) - along with many old hymns. But they rejoice in the precious treasure to be found within a silence that seeks a greater understanding of the path of life described in the Old and New Testaments.

Brett and Donna, as two "members" of the informal Brothers And Sisters In Christ (BASIC) Faith Community, host Meeting for Worship in the manner of Friends (Quakers) on second Sundays at 7:00 p.m. (MI), at Lakeside Church, Lakeside Road at Red Arrow Highway, in Lakeside, MI. Their usual pattern is 45 minutes of silence, followed by 15 minutes of sharing by individuals regarding how they "used the time" and what they gained from the silence.

People of all walks of life and all faiths are welcome to join in the silence - and in the vocal sharing of experiences, after the silence.

Brett and Donna offer in-home and in-residence prayer visits Tuesday evenings and a Bible Study (at Lakeland Continuing Care Center in St. Joseph, MI) Wednesday evenings. They minister in various roles and various locations Sunday mornings. Please visit their website, www.humblewalk.org, for further information.
